

Jan McCahey, Partner, PwC

Jan leads on Assurance Quality and Public Policy for PwC Australia. She is a fellow of CAANZ.

She has been speaking in Forums with company directors, CFOs and their teams and regulators on the implications of the COVID pandemic for high quality and timely financial reporting to capital markets.

Jan returned to Australia in mid 2019, after completing a four year role as Global Public Policy Leader for the PwC Network, based in London. From 2016 to 2018 she chaired the Global Public Policy Committee of the six largest global accounting networks. She continues to work with leaders in government, regulatory agencies and groups across the globe representing the accounting profession on matters relating to regulation and public policy.

She has a long-standing involvement in regulation, having served as Chief Accountant at ASIC and in several accounting standard setting roles.
